

to raise up peacemakers by His Spirit

*The Spirit of the LORD will rest on Him,
the spirit of wisdom and understanding,
the spirit of counsel and strength, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the LORD.* – Isaiah 11:2

Put Your Spirit of peacemaking power upon Your people – the same Spirit that empowered the work of Jesus. Give us the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, so that many will grasp Your ways and walk in Your light. Give us the Spirit of counsel and strength, that we might bring healing by our words and impart stamina to others so that they persevere in hope. Give us the Spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord so that we may help many to walk in the joyous awe of knowing You – and being known by You. By Your Spirit raise us up to be champions of change. Make us mighty in meekness to wage Your peace so that our city exhibits the life of Your coming kingdom.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God. – Matthew 5:9

May Your people instill hope for restored relationships in the midst of family feuds and racial tensions. By their lives and counsel, bring reconciling grace into families, workplaces and neighborhoods. Pray:

- for gifted, Christ-like people to serve as mediators in strife-torn homes and neighborhoods.
- for people of different churches to form new relationships of unity.

O LORD, You have heard the desire of the humble. You will strengthen their heart. You will incline Your ear to vindicate the orphan and the oppressed.

– Psalm 10:17-18

Seeking God for... Orphans

Pray for children who have lost their parents, or who are now in foster care away from their birth parents; for safe, loving, permanent homes with godly adoptive or foster parents; for healing from effects of physical, emotional or sexual abuse; for siblings to be adopted together;

for those who have "aged out" of adoptive services, that they will find wise mentors and a secure place in the family of God.

Prayerwalk: Pray for people in your neighborhood who God may be calling to become foster or adoptive parents. Pray that they will act in His love and wisdom.
